

PROMINENT YOUNG MAN SUCCUMBS

Wearen Kennedy Dies at His Home Here—Was Tobacco Expert—Highly Esteemed

Wearen Kennedy, one of the best known young business men of Richmond, passed away at his home on Smith-Ballard street Wednesday morning about nine o'clock. His wife and two children survive.

Mr. Kennedy had been quite ill for several weeks with acute sleeping sickness and a complication of troubles. He began to suffer while on the Carolina markets where he bought tobacco for the American Tobacco Company during the fall. He had to come home before the market closed, but regained his strength somewhat and resumed his work when the local markets opened early in January. A few weeks ago, however, his health failed entirely, and he was forced to take his bed, from which he did not arise, sinking rapidly until the end Wednesday morning.

His wife and two children, and two brothers, Jesse Kennedy, of Red House, and Capt. D. W. Kennedy, of the Kennedy Produce Company, of this city, survive, as well as his aged father, J. H. Kennedy, of Frankfort, and three sisters, Mrs. Calvin Galloway, Mrs. James C. Powell, of Irvine, and Mrs. L. J. Tipton, of Ravena. Capt. Kennedy is his twin.

Mr. Kennedy was nearly 30 years of age. He was a consistent member of the First Christian church, a prominent Knights of Pythias, Elk and Red Man, a leading democratic worker and popular with everyone.

He was a splendid, upright young man in every thing the word implies. Many hearts will mourn at his untimely crossing of the bar.

Mr. Kennedy made the race for the democratic nomination for Mayor in 1917 and came within an eyelash of winning, being defeated by Mayor Evans by a plurality of but 11 votes. He took the vicissitudes of politics like the good game democrat that he was and went to work for the ticket, as usual. He had been in business in Richmond for several years and was held in highest esteem by everyone who knew him.

Funeral services will be held at his home on Smith-Ballard street, Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock conducted by his pastor, Dr. Homer W. Carpenter. Interment will be in the Richmond cemetery. The pallbearers will be:

Honorary—Messrs. W. S. Judy, Robert Smithson, R. E. Heald, J. M. Fuller, Vernon Leer, J. R. Hutchins, W. E. Luxon, and A. L. Zeigler, all his associates in the tobacco business.

Active—Messrs. R. E. Million, Paul Burnam, Elmer Deatherage, James W. Wagers, John H. Gibson, Luther Powell, W. S. Broadus and Edwin C. Stockton, members of the three lodges to which he belonged.

No Tobacco Sales Thursday

On account of the death of Wearen Kennedy, local buyer and representative of the American Tobacco Company, there will be no sales on the Richmond tobacco market Thursday afternoon. The market will close at noon Thursday and open at 9:00 o'clock Friday morning—By order of the Richmond Board of Trade, Stone W. Norman, Supervisor of Sales.

(By Associated Press) Lexington, Ky., Feb. 16.—Twenty Kentucky cows owned by eight different dairymen and including fourteen Jerseys and six Holsteins won places on the January "Honor Roll" of the state by producing more than three pounds of butterfat during the two days that they were tested under the supervision of the State College of Agriculture, according to an announcement just made by Prof. J. J. Hooper, head of the Dairy Department of the college.

Shelby county led the list with nine cows that produced more than three pounds of butterfat. These were Jerseys owned by the Allen Dale farms at Shelbyville. Two Holsteins in the Gray Von Allman herd gave more than 52 pounds of milk daily while the test was on, while another in the same herd produced more than 50 pounds daily. Another cow of the same breed in the C. W. Smith herd also produced more than 50 pounds daily.

Harmony of Allen Dale, 3rd, produced 99.3 pounds of milk and 5.11 pounds of butterfat; the highest record.

"THE WHOLE WORLD IS A HOSPITAL"

With Christ the Great Physician in Charge, Says Dr. Ainslie Tuesday Night

"The world is a hospital and Jesus Christ, the Great Physician, is the only one who can heal the disease of the soul," said Dr. Ainslie Tuesday night at the First Christian church. "Without holiness no man can see God." The word holy means healthy, perfect. For a soul to grow to perfection, to attain holiness, it must be healthy, it must be rid of disease. The diseases of the soul, discussed by Dr. Ainslie, were love of money, impatience and worry, slanderous talk and inforgiveness.

The auditorium of the church was filled to capacity. At the close of the service, there were two confessions.

Dr. Ainslie's audiences listen to him with the most intense interest. He is a man with a message, the message that a restless world wants and needs to hear. Not often is a town of this size so privileged as to have a man of Dr. Ainslie's talent and ability spend a week with them, talking of vital things.

These meetings will of a necessity come to a close Friday evening, and the opportunity of hearing such talks and sermons should not be allowed to pass. The music is good; Miss Cynthia Davison's solos are an attractive feature; and there is a cordial welcome for all at both afternoon and evening services.

EASTERN LOSES TO ST. MARY'S

Once more a visiting basketball team carried away the long end of the score after playing a local team. This time St. Mary's College was the victor, the Eastern Normal the victim. The game was played on the Madison gym Tuesday night. The visitors ran up a score of 45 to 15 on our boys.

When the men from St. Mary's appeared on the floor for practice, it was evident to every spectator that there was a five-man team before them. Their snappy practice was not a flash in the pan, but an indication of the type of basketball they played throughout the entire 40 minutes. The Catholic boys brought the best team to the city that has appeared here for several seasons.

The Normal team played good basketball, but was plainly outclassed. Malloy was the only man who could find the net with any regularity. Combs and Fox both played a fast and aggressive game for the local team. Coach Hemmree made several changes in the lineup, but was unable to check the onrush of the visitors.

Gilligan of Berea, refereed.

The Normal team will play the Sue Bennett Memorial School on the Madison gym floor next Saturday night.

TONG WAR BREAKS OUT IN CALIFORNIA

(By Associated Press)

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 16.—Chinese of San Francisco, Los Angeles and Stockton today are entrenched behind closed doors and shuttered windows and are hidden deep from possible attacks which began last night with a fresh Tong war during the celebration of Chinese new year. Armed men in three cities were sent into the Chinese district to guard against new outbreaks.

Two Chinese merchants were killed and another wounded in Los Angeles. One was killed and three wounded here and one wounded at Stockton. A number of Chinamen were arrested but stubbornly declined to talk. The outbreak, however, seems the result of a feud between the Hop Sing and Bing Kong Tongs.

"OTHELLO" INFLAMED MASTERS JURYMEN

As Recited by Crutcher, Say Young Man's Attorneys, Who Ask New Trial of Court

What lawyers at the local bar say are perhaps the most original and unusual grounds for a new trial of a case, were contained in a motion filed in the Madison circuit court by Attorneys C. C. Wallace and J. C. Chenault, representing Floyd Masters, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for betraying Minnie Warren. In the written motion filed with the court, there are five causes cited by the attorneys as grounds for a new trial but the one which attracted the interest of those who read the motion, was that a new trial should be given Masters.

"Because the Commonwealth's Attorney in his argument before the jury recited and acted Shakespeare's drama, known as 'Othello,' the recitation and acting of said drama tending to inflame the jury."

Other grounds offered were that the jury was allowed to separate and mingle with the people during the trial; that because the court failed to instruct the jury not to make up their minds as to guilt or innocence until the case had been finally submitted to them; that because the court did not instruct the jury not to consider the case until it had been finally submitted to them; and because the jury did not consider the case, but returned its verdict, inflicting the extreme penalty under the law, within less than five minutes after retiring to the jury room.

Circuit court has been busy, mostly with civil cases the first part of this week. The grand jury met again Wednesday, however, and has quite a bit of work before it, it is said.

Judge Shackelford appointed Messrs. C. C. Coy, Elmer Deatherage and Joseph West as Jury Commissioners to fill the wheel. They will meet February 21st for that duty.

The suit of V. A. Leer and Co., against the L. & N. railroad for damages growing out of a shipment of mules to Blackey, up in the mountains, was decided in favor of the plaintiff, who was given judgment for $330.

A demurrer filed by attorneys for G. W. Goodloe to the suit brought against him by Harold Oldham for collection of an alleged debt amounting to about $500, was sustained, and the case was dismissed.

On account of the very serious illness of his brother, Wearen Kennedy, Judge Shackelford excused Jesse Kennedy from the jury box, early Wednesday morning. News came a little later to the court room that Mr. Kennedy was dead, and general sympathy was expressed for Mr. Kennedy and the entire family.

The suit of C. C. Clark against B. M. McGuire, over a rental contract, was dismissed, having been settled.

The suit of Fred Whitaker against the L. & N. was also dismissed, having been settled.

Court went into trial Wednesday morning of the suit of Lyons and Durham against Lonnie Abrams and Alvin Azbill. The plaintiffs are from Lebanon. The suit grew out of an alleged sale of a stock of goods in the army store on East Main street last November. The plaintiffs claimed that they sold the goods to Mr. Abrams and Mr. Azbill for $1,600 and a Mitchell car; that the deal was closed on the evening of November 25th, and the key to the storeroom turned over to the defendants and the key of the car to the plaintiffs. However, that night the entire stock, uninsured was destroyed by the fire that swept almost the entire block, destroying Soper's mill and a number of small storerooms and the Belue storeroom. The plaintiffs claimed when they called upon defendants to pay them the amount due as cash purchase price the next day, that it was claimed that the deal had not been completed, legally or otherwise. Messrs. Abrams and Azbill contended that the sale was not to become effective unless after examination by a mechanic the next day, the car was found to be in good shape, and also that

Ford About Right

The Daily Register doesn't always agree with what Henry Ford's magazine, Dearborn Independent, has to say, but it has some mighty interesting things at times. Right in the middle of the page that is called "Mr.

Ford's Page," is the following which is very nearly the truth and deserves thoughtful consideration by everyone at this time:

"Too long a stretch of good business is bad for business. A period of depression and slackness, such as the country has been having, is really good for business. The habit of sitting in an office and filling orders and counting money is the worst one that can be fastened on a business man. He ought to have just enough difficulty to make him dig. Orders have been coming so fast in America that we have forgotten how to get out and sell. Flabby and soft organizations did not know how to meet the changed conditions of the past three months. Now, everybody must get out and hustle, and that is one of the best things that has occurred in the United States since 1914."

JOHN ALLMAN

The Local Meat Dealer and Grocer, Who Never Sells Any Provisions He Would Not Eat Himself.

For a hundred reasons, the meat market and grocery that is neat, clean, flyless and otherwise sanitary, is the one above all others to patronize. This is the kind of meat market and grocery store that John Allman conducts at 124 Main street, the kind he has always conducted and the kind he will always operate so long as he remains in business. Mr. Allman has made it a rule never to offer anything for sale that he would not eat himself and make it a point to carry in stock a class of goods that appeals to particular people. Our local people have long since learned that when they order from him, whether in person or by telephone, they are certain of receiving the choicest of meats and groceries obtainable anywhere and at moderate price, with prompt delivery to any part of the city.

Mr. Allman pays the highest price for country produce either in cash or merchandise. His stock is fresh and carefully selected and comprises everything to be found in any first class meat market and grocery store in the land. His store is one of quality from top to bottom and one where the dollar does its full duty.

Mr. Allman has been in business in Richmond for 24 years, and his establishment is equipped with all the latest machinery and conveniences. He is a member of the City Council and Board of Education. No worthy project which has for its aim the moral and material advancement of this community ever fails to secure his support.

Colored Mob Prays For Prisoner

Clyde, Ga., Feb. 15—Negro possemen who came to shoot, remained to pray here at their prisoner's cell, it was revealed today. This ended plans for a lynching, and Isarel Waters, negro, charged with having molested a school girl of his own race, and captured by a posse of white and negro residents, went to jail instead. The whites turned Waters over to the negroes for punishment following his capture. He said today he had been stood up to be shot when he asked the brethren to pray for him, and the mob changed its mind about the shooting.

Women Continually Overdo

This applies to all women, regardless of caste or color. The ambitious girl striving for school honors, the overworked housewife, the shop girl, girls in offices and stores, and the society woman, all climb too high, overtax their strength, and what follows? Nervous prostration, sleeplessness, backache, headaches, and the inevitable weakness and ailments peculiar to their sex soon develop, which unless checked bring on more serious conditions, and which often lead to operations. An efficient restorative for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is now recognized from coast to coast as a standard remedy for woman's ills.

"Tanlac Made Me Feel Like I'm Starting Life Over Again," Says West Virginia Man—Couldn't Leave House When He Began Taking Tanlac

"I am seventy-seven years old and two months ago I could hardly get out of the house, but now I am working every day and feel as fine as I did back in the fifties," said J. H. Mankin, of Springhill, W. Va.

"Last spring I was taken down with the 'flu' for six weeks which left me so weak I could hardly get out of bed in the morning, and before I finished dressing I would get out of breath and have to stop and sit down. My appetite couldn't have been any poorer, and my stomach was sour all the time."

"I commenced taking Tanlac and my appetite came back and my food agreed with me and gave me strength and energy. From then on I picked up fast and now I have gained twelve pounds in weight and my friends all tell me I look better than I have in many years. I am working every day and am stronger than I was even before I had the 'flu.' Tanlac has simply made me feel like I'm starting life over again and nothing I can say for it is too good."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton & Son; in Berea by the Welch Department Store, and at College Hill by Ginter Brothers.

IN THE MOVIES

Wild Dash Spoiled in Motion Picture When Motor Sinks

Often during the filming of a photoplay production an amusing and entirely diverting incident will arise to cause much merriment and sometimes trouble for those in charge of the production.

Such an incident occurred while Vitagraph's charming star, Alice Joyce, was making the "Vice of Fools," her new Vitagraph special production. It was nearly the cause of calling off work for the day, since the scenes in which it occurred were being photographed many miles from the studio, and the harassed cameramen had brought with them only about five times as much film as they thought would be needed, and this had about been exhausted before the action was finally caught.

During the course of the story Miss Joyce in her character of Marion Rogers is asked to speed across a wide lake in a motor launch with Robert Gordon, her leading man, to head off an elopement which Marion knows will bring naught but trouble and distress if carried out. The early scenes show the supposed lovers all ready for the departure, the point at which Miss Joyce and Cameron West, played by Mr. Gordon, were to rush up from the boat landing after a mad dash across the lake in the motor launch and stop them.

Shall They Dance or Not

Danville, Ky., Feb. 16—This college city, seat of culture and refinement, home of colleges and churches, beautiful women and blooded horses, and bluegrass, is all agog over the question of dancing.

"Shall we curtail the present mode of dancing, or shall we suppress dancing altogether?"

This is the momentous question that is to be put before the city fathers for settlement.

All this agitation was started by a well-known local minister, who made serious charges against the conduct at a recent dance at which, he declared, "moonshine" was much in evidence. The police department has been called upon to investigate the dance. An informal court of inquiry is being held, but so far as known no warrants have been issued. Those in charge of the dance claim that if any drinking was indulged in, the beverage was obtained before reaching the place of the dance.

It is claimed that a good many in search of a beverage with a "kick" have turned to a certain brand of perfume, which is said to contain about 80 per cent alcohol. Some "kick" there.

Some of the citizens are urging the City Council to pass an ordinance prohibiting dancing within the city limits of Danville. Others want to curtail the present mode of dancing, suppress all

Just what action the city fathers will take remains to be seen. Meanwhile, it is said, perfume sales are on the increase.

Cattle Sell at Stanford

There were 350 cattle at Nummelley's Stock Pens Monday and they all sold in a hurry, says the Stanford Journal. In fact there was a demand for good cattle and more could have been disposed of had they been on the market. Prices ranged from 5 1-2 to 8 cents, the latter price for good, 700 pound steers.

What is

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Simply and tersely stated, MOTHER'S FRIEND is just exactly what the name implies—a friend and help to mothers.

It has been made and sold for more than half a century. If it did not possess the value claimed for it, MOTHER'S FRIEND could not possibly have remained on the market. For only that which is really worth while and beneficial can survive.

The mothers who appreciate MOTHER'S FRIEND the most, and who are loudest in their praise of it, are those who unfortunately did not use it with their first baby, and who, through its use with the second one, were able to fully realize the relief it gave them.

DIDN'T EVEN NEED THE DOCTOR

"Dear Sirs: I am willing and anxious to tell any mother about MOTHER'S FRIEND. It did me so much good that I wouldn't be without it if it cost $5.00 a bottle. With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I only had a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick and only sick about ten or fifteen minutes."

"Any mother can write me and I will only be too glad to give her advice. Yours truly,"

TELLS MERCHANTS TO BE CAREFUL

President of Retailers' Association Says It Is Necessary In Trying Times

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 16.—Careful merchandising must be the watchword of the retail merchant in Kentucky in 1921 if he expects to survive the trying conditions confronting the business world. This was the dominant note in the address of Eugene J. Straus, president of the Retailers' Association of Kentucky, delivered at the third annual convention here today. Mr. Straus held to the belief that business for the retail merchant will steadily improve, but he does not foresee an early return to boom times.

The report of the secretary of the association showed an increase in membership during the past year from 600 to more than a thousand. This is considered by officials of the association to be a good showing in view of the fact that the association is only two years old and has had to confront unprecedented conditions of depression among retail merchants, in common with all other branches of the mercantile business.

Recommendations of the legislative committee of the association which will be offered, it was stated, call for a united front among retailers in regard to various bills dealing with merchandising that may be introduced at the next regular session of the Kentucky legislature. It is expected that active steps will be taken to combat any effort, such as has been made in the Texas legislature and those of other states now in session, to compel the marking of wholesale prices on merchandise sold by retailers, it was stated.

Members of the association, it was said, would not oppose a law that would truly represent the cost of merchandise which they sell and which they point out is not by any means represented by the single item of wholesale cost. Other items, such as depreciation, clerk hire, store rent, adequate return on money invested and a reasonable allowance for contingencies that occur in all business concerns, which, it is asserted, often involve great loss, must be considered, it was intimated, before a proper retail price can be computed.

HOGS DECREASED IN MADISON 88 PER CENT

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 16.—More than two-thirds of the counties of Kentucky showed decreases in the number of hogs, mules, beef cattle, sheep and swine on farms January 1, 1921, as compared with January 1, 1920, according to figures compiled by the United States department of agriculture. Slightly less than two-thirds of the counties showed decreases in the number of milk cows.

Grant county showed the greatest increase in any one item in the report, horses on the farm being said to number 125 per cent of the number on January 1, 1920. This figure, however, is questioned by the bureau.

The greatest general decrease was in the number of swine, only nine counties reporting 100 per cent or more of the number on farms January 1, 1920. Decreases range from 90 per cent on the January 1, 1921, as compared to the number on January 1, 1920, in Campbell county; 88 per cent in Daviess; Henderson, 66 per cent; Kenton, 85 per cent; Oldham, 70 per cent; Boyle, 88 per cent; Fayette, 80 per cent; Jessamine, 83 per cent; Madison, 88 per cent; Woodford, 97 per cent; Graves, 66 per cent; McCracken, 100 per cent; Insist on Pape's!

67 per cent; Christian, 79 per cent, and Warren 71 per cent to 50 per cent in Caldwell, Anderson and Boyd counties. Counties which showed no decrease in the number of hogs were Trimble, 100 per cent; Lincoln, 100 per cent; Floyd, 100 per cent; Knott, 100 per cent; Magoffin, 108 per cent; Hart, 103 per cent; Harlan and Jackson, 100 per cent, and Whitley, 105 per cent.

Kentucky's oil output in 1920 was 8,679,000 barrels.

Getting Even

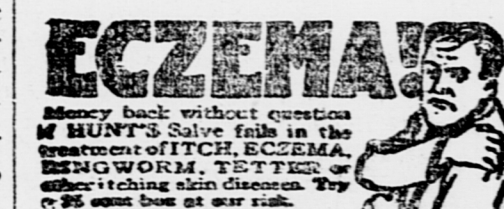

"I am glad I broke my engagement with Tom," Mabel observed indignantly. "He was no gentleman."

"Why, I have always thought him one," Tess commented in surprise. "What has he done?"

"Well, I sent him back his presents—that is, all except the diamond ring and a few other things that I thought I was really entitled to considering how many times he had taken dinner at our house and all, and asked him to return mine."

"Well, did he refuse?"

"He did not. He not only sent back a box of cigars, unopened, and a penwiper and knit necktie, but he sent also five boxes of face powder, saying he estimated that to be about the quantity he had taken away on his coat during the time we were engaged."

REED SAYS TARIFF IS PURE ROBBERY

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Feb. 16.—Democratic Senators supporting the emergency tariff bill were invited today by Senator Reed, democrat, of Missouri, to take seats on the Republican side of Senate, "in the rear where you belong." Reed bitterly assailed the tariff measure as a "buccaneering expedition" which this Congress is about to undertake. He characterized the measure as "robbery" and charged democrats are supporting it "because they can get part of the swag."

GETTING READY FOR R. R. FIGHT AGAIN

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Employees' representatives in the railroad rules hearing before the Federal Railroad Labor Board today are preparing for their coming tomorrow. It is indicated B. M. Jewell will make the preliminary statement before presenting the rebuttal to the railroads' objections to the national working agreement. Meanwhile the heads of 150 railroads have been summoned to go over the entire situation. Those on the ground regard it likely the unions will ask a recess of a month or more to get their evidence in shape.

"BLACK" BACKING NEW EXPRESS CO.

The Southern Railway is promoting a new express company, and T. C. Blackwell, the popular and clever trainmaster at Danville, who often visits F. H. Gordon, and who has many friends here, is in charge of stock sales. The Advocate there says:

"A new express company to be known as the South Eastern Express Company is being formed by the Southern Railway to take the place of the American Railway Express Company, which now is operating over the Southern Railway lines. There is to be no bonds and no preferred stock and every stockholder is absolutely guaranteed seven percent and this guarantee has the backing of the Southern Railway System. Stock subscriptions will close on Thursday of this week. This is a strictly guaranteed proposition with all the resources of the Southern Railway behind it. The company will operate over the nine thousand miles of the Southern system. Mr. T. C. Blackwell, trainmaster for the Southern, is taking subscriptions for the stock in Danville, and is meeting with considerable success on account of the fact that the stock is such a gilt-edged proposition."

BURIED HER MOTHER IN FLOWER GARDEN

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Feb. 16.—The body of Mrs. Nancy Chamberlain, 81, who mysteriously disappeared from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Townsend, was found today buried in the back yard of the apartment house where the Townsend's lived. Dire poverty, it was explained, moved the woman and her daughter Marion, to bury the body in a flower bed last June. "Only her child's hand should bury her mother," Mrs. Townsend said in reply to questions, cryptically adding, "it was by direction of the one, oneness unity is all powerful." Questioning failed to disclose that the Townsends had delved into occultism. A coroner's physician said Mrs. Chamberlain had died from natural causes.

No Need to Take Chances With it—Pepto-Mangan Makes Rich, Red Blood

When you first feel a tired, all-gone feeling and look pale, your blood is losing in quality. Weak, impoverished blood has no power to fight disease. It takes red blood to keep you well.

If you keep your blood in good condition it will fight off disease. You will not be such an easy prey to long and expensive sickness. With thin blood you take chances every day.

There's no need doing that. You can take Pepto-Mangan and build up rich, red blood. With red blood you are able to win in the fight against prevailing diseases. Try Pepto-Mangan. It comes in tablet or liquid form. Take either kind. The tablet has the same medicinal value as the liquid. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package.—Advertisement.

ESCAPED CONVICT WAS HELD IN JAIL HERE

Chester Phelps, one of the three men who escaped from the state penitentiary at Frankfort, but who was recaptured near Lexington, spent several weeks in the Madison county jail last summer. He was held here for safekeeping, having been brought here from Knox county, where he was afterwards convicted.

The three men, Heber Hicks, Ray Blackburn and Chester Phelps, were captured by deputy sheriffs in a house on Swigert avenue, three and a half miles from Lexington, near the Country Club. The men had gone to the house about day light and had taken possession of it, according to the officers. No resistance was offered by the convicts and they voiced hope they would "have better luck next time."

The house in which they were found belonged to a man named Brown, who was not at home. Receiving information that the trio had been seen in that vicinity, Deputy Sheriffs Waller Marshall, Frank Hall, Thos. McLaughlin and Forest Stivers went in search of them. Going to the rear door of the Brown home, which was unlocked, the officers entered and went upstairs. When they attempted to open a door on the second floor, there was resistance as if some one was standing against it. Deputy Sheriff Marshall hurled himself against it and the officers, with drawn revolvers, entered. The three men were in the room and the condition of the bed indicated they had taken some rest. Blackburn had been against the door, it was said.

All surrendered without resistance and were brought to Lexington and taken to the county jail. It was expected they will be taken to Frankfort late this afternoon. There is a reward of $100 for each of them.

"We pulled a clever stunt in escaping, but we certainly did a bonehead trick in getting caught," declared Chester Phelps when seen at the county jail shortly after the three had been placed in a cell to await transfer back to Frankfort.

The trio refused to say what the "clever stunt" was which gave them their liberty except that they saw out of their cell, scaled the prison walls with the guards only a short distance away and made their getaway under cover of darkness. They declared, however, that the guards had nothing to do with letting them get away.

"They are wholly innocent of any knowledge of the stunt that we pulled and started after us almost as soon as we had emerged from prison walls, but we gave them the slip by a ruse and got away," added Phelps. All three men had discarded their prison garb and were dressed in new stylishly fitting clothes. They refused to say when or where they laid aside their prison clothes, but left the impression that the new outfits were obtained in Lexington.

"We travelled at night," said Ray Blackburn, "but made a big mistake in coming to Lexington, where I was known." Then Blackburn, with a sigh, expressed the belief that their capture was due to the fact that he was recognized by someone here who knew him, referring to the fact that while he was secretary of the State Board of Charities he had frequently been in this city and was tried and convicted in the Lexington court house. Then as if exorcising his bad luck in being caught, Blackburn said:

"The number 13 is my hoodoo, I believe. I landed at the Frankfort prison on the 13th day of month and our escape took place on Sunday, the 13th. And when I think of that I wonder we were able to get as far as we did."

Phelps said they were hungry and went to the house this morning to get something to eat. Finding nobody there, he continued, "we decided to enter and spend the day until night, when we intended to travel again under cover of darkness and seek a more secluded part of the country. After entering the house we got something to eat and went upstairs to rest and recuperate for another lap of our journey. One of us looked out of the window and saw the deputy sheriffs coming, and then we knew it was all off with us. There was a shot gun in the house, but we did not intend to kill anybody and surrendered without resistance. It is going to be mighty hard on us when we get back to the prison, but that's our bad luck."

Phelps, who said his original home was in New York State, said that he was sent up from Knox county, where he was accused of murdering a man whom he was seen with the night before. "I am as innocent of killing that man as you are," he declared, "and one reason why I made such a desperate effort to escape is because I am sick of doing time for somebody else who should be wearing prison clothes instead of me. I was sent up for life, but before I will labor for years behind those gloomy walls, I will kill myself. If I can't escape in any other way I will leap from the prison walls and let the guards shoot me to death."
